The Bicyclists. About fifty wheelmen were at the Hot Springs last Sunday. The club from Salt Lake were the guests of the Ogden boys. The Ogden club did honor to themselves in last evening. the manner in which they entertained the visiting cyclists from the capital. The party left Ogden about 10:30 in the mora-ing and they made the run to the springs, a ing and they made the run to the springs, a distance of about nine miles, in one hour and fifteen minutes, acriving at their destination at 11:45. Soon after the party arrived Mr. M. E. Post, the gentlemanly manager of Ogden's famous resort, escorted the joilty cyclists into the spacious dining hall of the Hot Springs hotel, where an elegant and delicious lunch was awaiting them. After all had sat down to the noon day repast, the visitors' appreciation of the feast was so great that, several were heard to remark that "the Ogden bys know how to entertain their guests."

Surely Mr. Post deserves much credit for the able manner in which he entertained the entire party in the dining room of his hetel. After lunch was ever the captains of the two clubs called the wheelmen in the and they were soon off for the Ogden Driving park, where the afternoon was spent in racing, ball playing and other amusements. One of the novel features of the day's entertainment was a race between several wheelmen and a trotting horse.

The ball game was really not a contest, nor was it intended to be from the start. However, the Sait Lakers won by several majority over the home team.

After this was over the clubs returned to Ogden just in time for the visitors to catch the train for Sait Lake.
On a whole the day was well spent and every one seemed to enjoy themselves. The following were included in the Sait Lake.

Petitions were circulated among the various churches of this city Sunday last To the Honorable Mayor and City Council of Ogden, Utah:

Ogden. Utah:

GENTLEMEN-We, the undersigned resident taxpayers and citizens of Ogden City, Utah, do most earnestly protest against the granting of any petition which will allow baloons to keep open after midnight or on the Sabbath day. And we would most earnestly petition that all laws regulating the sale of intexicating liquors be strictly enforced, and we will ever pray.

It will be remembered that at the meeting of the city council last Friday evening a petition from the saloon keepers was read a petition from the saloon keepers was read asking the privilege to keep their places of business open all night, and the anti-saloon people have taken the means of defending the morality of the city.

A Sad Death.

A sad accident occurred at the Utah & Northern railway, about a mile and a half north of Ogden, yesterday a ternoon. A lady by the name of Mrs. Hewitt was overtaken by the train which leaves Ogden for the Hot Springs at 2:30 o'clock, and killed almost ingerantle. It would be to be in every household. It will cure will care almost ingerantle. The more than the under the Hot Springs at 2:30 o'clock, and killed almost ingerantle. the Hot Springs at 2:30 o'clock, and killed almost instantly. It seems that the en-gineer gave the alarm as the engine ap-proached her, but the lady was deaf and falled to hear the shrick of the locomotive's whistle. When the train struck her she was hurled to the ground, and perhaps never knew what caused her untimely death. She was picked up, and it was found that one leg was broken above the ankle, and severe bruises were noticed

The corpse was brought to Ogden, and an inquest was held at the office of Undertaker Preshaw at 6 o'clock last evening.

THE BIGGEST FRAUD OF ALL.

The Conglomeration of Bosses in the Great Liberal Party. To the Editor of THE HERALD:

Please answer through the columns of THE HERALD the following. I appeal to you, knowing that the Tribune won't give an Independent Workingman fair play by publishing an answer: The Tribune in an editorial of Wednesday, August 13, strikes a blow at the "Independ William Garland vs. John Martin; order ent Workingmen Movement," calling it passed hearing contempt proceedings till uniswful combitation with the Mormon ent Workingmen Movement," calling it uniswful consbitation with the Mormon church and a crime. The biggest fraud that was ever committed in politics was the formation of the so-called Liberal party. It is an unlawful cohabitation of elements weich never have and never will agree. Look at the Republican, Democrat and Prohibitionist: the Protestant, Roman Catholic and Jew getting up a combination and calling it a "Liberal party." The proper name for it would be "Illiberal party." That the days or this miscarriage, the so-called Liberal party, are numbered, no one knows better than its leaders. The Independent Workingmen will never forget the assistance the Mormon people gave them at the start, and as soon as we have control of Salt Lake city and county we'll send of Salt Lake city and county we'll send some of the so called Liberals where they would like to see us. An Independent Workingman.
